LAWRENCE - 25-year-old singer, songwriter and producer of introspective EDM Chelsea Cutler performs at the Granada on Wednesday, November 16, 2022 at 8:00 p.m.

This concert is a part of the When I Close My Tour in response to her most recent album release by the same name. She will be joined by artists Ayokay and Arden Jones and doors will open at 7:00 p.m.

On her newest album, Cutler said, “My inspiration for the album was just sonically the kind of music I wanted to make after my last album... I felt really inspired by gratitude for everyday blessings, especially with how difficult the last two years have been for everyone. I felt like I just wanted to write about how grateful I am for everything.”

Cutler was born and raised in Westport, Connecticut, where she learned piano, guitar, cello and drums by the time she was 10. After starting electronic music production in high school in 2014, she left Amherst College to pursue music full-time when she was offered a support role on Quinn XCII’s 2018 national tour. She signed to Republic Records in 2019 and is excited for her third national tour. Ayokay is an American producer and DJ from Grosse Pointe, Michigan. He has toured with artists including Jeremy Zucker, Quinn XCII and Katie Pearlman. While he is most known for his 2016 single titled “Kings of Summer,” Ayokay placed number 50 on the Billboard Hot Dance/Electronic Songs Chart with “The Shine,” featuring Chelsea Cutler.

Arden Jones is a 21-year-old rap-pop artist from Marin County, California. His first release titled “Parallel Parking” debuted in January 2021 and went viral on TikTok shortly after. He charted on Spotify’s Viral 50 chars and has often been featured on New Music Friday and other top playlists. •
